Masterpiece London sets itself apart from other fairs by incorporating premium collectors' items from brands across a range of disciplines. The response from 2010 exhibitors was unprecedented and those returning in 2011 include Dickinson, Vanderven & Vanderven, and A La Vieille Russie. New names include Noortman Master Paintings, Marlborough Fine Art, Daniel Katz Ltd and Rolls-Royce.

Masterpiece London, which attracted over 18,000 visitors in 2010, provides a premium cultural experience for local London residents, and UK and international visitors on a scale that no other art, antiques and contemporary design fair does and its new home in 2011 will allow even more people to enjoy some of the world's finest pieces.

Organisers of this prestigious event have highlighted a number of pieces which will be on sale at the fair under the heading of Masterpiece London Lust List, amongst which is an extravagant pair of turquoise and diamond earrings of oriental inspiration by Van Cleef & Arpels to be exhibited by Epoque Fine Jewels

Epoque Fine Jewels has a special preference for Art Deco pieces and those from the forties, fifties and sixties. This exceptional pair of turquoise and diamond earrings are mounted in gold and signed by Van Cleef & Arpels. Price on request.

Also on the Masterpiece Lust List is a show-stopping timepiece from Vacheron Constantin. Debuting in the UK - a one-of-a-kind Vacheron Constantin Watch featuring a faithful reproduction of the entire Chagall ceiling of L'Opéra de Paris.

Vacheron Constantin has created an exceptional collection of 15 one-of-a-kind models in tribute to the greatest composers, the same artists who inspired Marc Chagall for his monumental fresco painting adorning the ceiling of the Garnier Opera House. The first watch in the Métiers d'Art - Chagall & L'Opéra de Paris collection is entitled "Tribute to famous composers". This one-of-a-kind creation uses the time-honoured Geneva technique of grand feu enamelled miniature painting. The Chagall watch will appear for the first time ever in the UK at Masterpiece London. It was launched in Paris in November.
